Biometric Collection Disclosure

BIOMETRICS

Where allowed by law, Paragon uses Biometrics to improve the security and integrity of the testing process in a way that protects test candidate privacy while ensuring test candidate identity.

During the test check-in process an image capture is taken that collects geometric measurements of facial characteristics and checks them against the facial image of the test candidate as presented on their official identification document at the time of registration. Facial recognition is employed for the purposes of identity verification, detection and prevention of fraud and misrepresentation, maintaining the integrity of the testing process, and improving the security of test content.

A. Privacy Statement for Biometrics

1. How the Biometric Enabled Check-In System Works

During the security check-in process to take a test a picture image is taken that employs measurements of the facial characteristics of the individual candidate and assigns a template to the image. The template is compared against the facial image of the candidate as presented on their official identification document used at the time of registration for the test and allows Paragon to identify that the candidate testing is the same candidate who registered for the test.

2. Purposes and Uses for Biometric Data

Biometric data is solely used to: (1) verify a candidate's identity on an ongoing basis as they participate in present and future assessments; (2) detect and prevent fraud and misrepresentation by unauthorized candidates; (3) maintain the integrity of the testing process; (4) improve security of test centers and/or test content; and (5) as required by law for certain licensure programs.

3. Disclosures of Biometric Data

As a matter of policy, Paragon does not disclose biometric data to any third party. However, in the event of an investigation of cheating, unauthorized testing, or other misconduct, Paragon may disclose the biometric data to regulatory or law enforcement agencies and/or other third parties involved in the investigation of misconduct or enforcement of Paragon's rights. Paragon will also disclose Personal Data, information and other records only in relation to lawful requests by regulatory, legal or government agencies with jurisdiction and/or authority to make such requests.

4. Security and Data Retention

Paragon shall at all times protect a candidate's Personal Data with operational, administrative, technical and physical security safeguards. Unless a candidate's personal data is being used in connection with an active security or misconduct investigation, Paragon on behalf of the test sponsor shall retain candidate data collected through the Biometric Check-In System in accordance with the law in the jurisdiction in which the data was obtained, or for a maximum of three years from the date of the last assessment or the expiration of the purpose for which the candidate's data was collected, whichever time period is shorter.

5. Data Processing

Paragon complies with all local privacy laws in the collection and processing of Personal Data or information, including biometric data such as facial recognition images. This includes but is not limited to, as required, providing disclosures on Paragon's processes and procedures for the collection and processing of Personal Data, obtaining consent of the individual, and/or adherence to local Data Protection Laws in the regions where Paragon conducts business. Candidates are required to expressly consent to the collection, transfer and processing of Personal Data, including biometric data.

At any time you may request access, rectification, erasure, portability, restriction, or object to the processing of your Personal Data, or make inquiries, requests, complaints, or withdraw consent related thereto by completing a data subject request to privacy@paragontesting.ca. You are encouraged to consult the full Paragon Privacy Policy located at <https://www.paragontesting.ca/paragon-legal-agreements-and-policies/privacy-policy>.

The collection, transfer, processing, use and storage of your Biometric Data is necessary to register, schedule and administer a test to you. Please contact Paragon through the contact information provided above if you do not consent to the collection, transfer, processing, use and storage of your Biometric Data.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Paragon reasonably suspects that you are responsible for or involved in any act or omissions that has adversely affected the security of the Test Session or the integrity of the Test scores or if you have breached these Service Terms or the General Terms of Service, then Paragon in its discretion may refuse to allow you to retake the Test or any other Test or require that you pay the applicable fee to do so.

(a) Misprints/Errors: Paragon endeavours to provide current and accurate information on the Websites, but misprints, errors, inaccuracies, omissions (including incorrect details for a Product or Service) and other errors may sometimes occur. Paragon reserves the right to correct any misprint, error, inaccuracy or omission at any time without prior notice or liability to you or any other person, and change at any time the Products and Services (including available Test sessions) advertised on the Websites, the prices, fees, charges and specifications of those Products and Services and any other Website content, all without any notice or liability to you or any other person. If you submit an order for a Product or Service for which incorrect information was displayed on a Website, Paragon will provide you with a reasonable opportunity to cancel your order.

(b) Availability: Products and Services advertised on a Website may not be available when ordered or thereafter. If you order a Product or Service that is not available, Paragon will notify you by email. Paragon reserves the right in its discretion to refuse to accept or cancel any order you submit and to limit quantities available for sale or sold to you.

(c) Prices: All prices and other amounts appearing on a Website are quoted in Canadian dollars, unless expressly indicated otherwise. Paragon reserves the right to change prices advertised on a Website at any time. The total price of your order will include the price of the ordered Products and Services plus all applicable delivery charges, handling charges and taxes. The price, applicable taxes and charges will appear on the completed order form, and will be charged to your specified payment service when your order is accepted by Paragon.

(d) Orders: The advertisements on the Websites are invitations to make offers to purchase Products and Services and are not offers to sell. Your properly completed and delivered order constitutes your offer to purchase the Products and Services referenced in the order. Your order will be deemed accepted by Paragon when Paragon processes payment for your order or sends (by email) an order acceptance notice to you, whichever is sooner.

(e) Order Cancellation: Because Paragon endeavours to fill orders quickly, you may not cancel an order except in accordance with Paragon's Transfer and Cancellation Policy, as revised by Paragon from time to time, which is available on the Websites.

(f) Payment: You may pay for your purchases with the payment methods specified on the applicable Website. Paragon obtains payment pre-approval from your payment service when your order is processed. The purchase payment will be charged to your payment service if and when your order is processed. Except as expressly set forth in these General Terms of Service or applicable Service Terms or otherwise required by applicable law, pre-paid fees are not refundable under any circumstances.

(g) Delivery: Paragon will deliver Products to you electronically or by physical shipment, as specified in your applicable accepted order.

9. Proprietary Rights:

(a) Ownership: Products and Services and all related proprietary rights (including copyright and other intellectual property rights) are owned solely by Paragon and its licensors, and are protected by Canadian and international copyright and other intellectual property laws. You will not copy, reproduce, republish, translate, upload, post, publicly display, transmit, communicate or make available to the public, or otherwise disclose or distribute any Product or Service, in whole or in part, in any way or for any purpose whatsoever. Your purchase or use of a Product or Service does not transfer to you any right, title or interest in, to or associated with the Product or Service.

(b) Trademarks: PARAGON, CELPIP, CELPIT, CELTOP, CELL, LPI, CANADIAN ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY INDEX TEST, LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY INDEX, CANADIAN ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY INDEX PROGRAM, CAEL, CANADIAN ACADEMIC ENGLISH LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT and related logos are registered or unregistered trademarks and service marks owned or licensed by Paragon. Any unauthorized use of those trademarks is strictly prohibited, and nothing on a Website or in these General Terms of Services or any Service Terms will be construed as granting, by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, any licence or right to use any of those trademarks and service marks.

(c) Feedback: If you give to Paragon any feedback (including any comments, ideas or suggestions for corrections, enhancements or improvements) regarding a Product, Service or Website, then Paragon and its successors, assigns and licensees may use the feedback for any and all purposes (including to support, maintain and improve Products, Services and Websites) without providing any compensation or attribution to you or any other person.

(d) Reservation: All rights not expressly granted by these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms are reserved by Paragon.

10. Accounts:

(a) General: To access and use certain features of a Website, Paragon may require that you register with Paragon, have a valid and subsisting account with Paragon (an "Account"), and use a valid user name and password that complies with Paragon's technical requirements and policies (collectively "Credentials").

(b) Restrictions/Requirements: You may have only one (1) Account. Except as expressly set forth in sections 10(f) and 12: (i) you may not create an Account for any other person; and (ii) your Account and Credentials are personal to you and may not be shared with or use by any other person. You are fully responsible and liable for maintaining the confidentiality of your Account and Credentials and for any and all use and misuse of your Account and Credentials (including all transactions using your Account or Credentials) and for all resulting loss and damage.

(c) Notices: You will immediately notify Paragon by email to support@paragontesting.ca if you discover any unauthorized use of your Account or if you know or suspect that your Credentials have been lost or stolen or become known to or used by any other person.

(d) Reliance/Verification: Paragon may act upon any communication that is given through your Account or by using your Credentials. Paragon is not under any obligation to verify the actual identity or authority of any person using your Account or Credentials, but Paragon in its discretion may at any time require verification of the identity of any person seeking to access your Account and may deny access to and use of your Account if Paragon is not satisfied with the verification.

(e) Cancellation/Suspension/Termination: Paragon may in its discretion cancel or suspend your Account or reject, revoke or require that you change or renew your Credentials at any time without notice or liability to you or any other person, including if your Account is inactive or if your Credentials fail to comply with these General Terms of Service. If your Account is suspended, cancelled or terminated by Paragon, you may not create another Account without Paragon's express prior written consent.

(f) Accounts for Children: You may create an Account for a child for whom you are the parent or legal guardian, and in those circumstances you and your child are jointly and severally responsible and liable for the Account and related Credentials.

11. Accurate Information: To create an Account or to order a Product or Service, Paragon may require that you provide certain information about yourself (including your legal name, residential address, email address, other contact information and in some instances details of your government-issued identification documents) and payment information. You represent and warrant that all information you provide to Paragon is true, accurate, current and complete, and that you will update the information from time to time so that it remains true, accurate, current and complete. Paragon will rely on the information that you provide. Paragon is not under any obligation to verify the truth, accuracy, currency or completeness of any information you provide, but Paragon may do so in its discretion, and you hereby consent to Paragon making reasonable inquiries as Paragon considers appropriate to verify the information you provide. You hereby authorize Paragon to create and permanently retain records of all information that you provide to Paragon and all communications between you and Paragon and to use, retain and disclose that information as reasonably necessary to provide Products and Services and to otherwise perform Paragon's obligations and exercise Paragon's rights under these General Terms of Service and applicable Service Terms. You are solely responsible and liable for all loss, damage and expense that you, Paragon or any other person may suffer or incur as a result of your submission of any false, inaccurate, out of date or incomplete information, your failure to promptly update your information if it changes, or any other breach of your obligations under this section 11.

12. Authorized Representatives:

(a) General: Paragon in its discretion may permit you to use procedures prescribed by Paragon to appoint another person or legal entity (an "Authorized Representative") to act as your agent and representative in all dealings with Paragon, including for purposes of creating, administering and using your Account, submitting and processing your orders for Products and Services and related transactions, and exchanging on your behalf documents and information (including your confidential information, personal information and test scores) with Paragon.

(b) Authorization/Responsibility: By appointing your Authorized Representative in accordance with Paragon's prescribed procedures, you authorize Paragon to deal with your Authorized Representative as your authorized agent and representative for all purposes unless and until your appointment of your Authorized Representative is terminated as set forth in section 12(c). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing in this section 12(b), you hereby acknowledge and agree that: (i) your Authorized Representative may accept and agree on your behalf to all of Paragon's applicable customer agreements and policies (including these General Terms of Service and all applicable Service Terms), as amended from time to time; and (ii) you are bound by, and fully responsible and liable for, all acts and omissions (including wrongful conduct and use of your confidential or personal information or your Account) by or on behalf of your Authorized Representative.

(b) Authorization/Responsibility: By appointing your Authorized Representative in accordance with Paragon’s prescribed procedures, you authorize Paragon to deal with your Authorized Representative as your authorized agent and representative for all purposes unless and until your appointment of your Authorized Representative is terminated as set forth in section 12(c). (c) Termination: You or your Authorized Representative may terminate the Authorized Representative’s status at any time using the online procedures prescribed by Paragon from time to time or by sending an email to info@paragontesting.ca. A termination request submitted by you or your Authorized Representative will not be effective unless and until the request is actually received and processed by Paragon’s personnel. (c) EXCEPTIONS: THE LAWS IN SOME JURISDICTIONS PROHIBIT OR LIMIT THE DISCLAIMER OF CERTAIN WARRANTIES AND CONDITIONS OR THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF CERTAIN LIABILITIES, AND SO THE DISCLAIMERS AND LIABILITY EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS IN THESE GENERAL TERMS OF SERVICE MIGHT NOT APPLY TO YOU.

(d) INDEMNITY: YOU WILL DEFEND, INDEMNIFY AND HOLD HARMLESS PARAGON GROUP FROM AND AGAINST ANY AND ALL LOSSES, DAMAGES, COSTS, EXPENSES (INCLUDING LEGAL FEES), CLAIMS, COMPLAINTS, DEMANDS, ACTIONS, SUITS, PROCEEDINGS, OBLIGATIONS AND LIABILITIES (INCLUDING LEGAL FEES AND EXPENSES AND SETTLEMENT PAYMENTS) ARISING FROM, CONNECTED WITH OR RELATING TO YOUR USE OF TESTING SERVICES AND INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS OR YOUR NEGLIGENCE, MISCONDUCT, OR BREACH OF THESE GENERAL TERMS OF SERVICE OR ANY APPLICABLE SERVICE TERMS. Paragon in its discretion may for its sole convenience terminate these General Terms of Service at any time by giving a notice of termination to you or by permanently closing/deactivating your Account.

(c) Consequences of Termination: Notwithstanding any other provision of these General Terms of Service, the obligations and liabilities you incur prior to termination of these General Terms of Service will survive termination, and sections 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10(e), 12(b), 11, 13, 14(c) and 15 of these General Terms of Service (and all other provisions of these General Terms of Service necessary to their interpretation or enforcement) will survive termination and continue to apply and be binding upon you and Paragon.

15. General Matters:

(a) Governing Law: These General Terms of Service, the Service Terms, Products and Services, the relationship between you and Paragon, and all related matters will be governed by, and construed and interpreted solely in accordance with, the laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada and applicable federal laws of Canada, excluding any rules of private international law or the conflict of laws that would lead to the application of any other laws and excluding any law that implements the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.

(b) Disputes: The courts of British Columbia, Canada sitting in the city of Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada will have original and exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes arising from, connected with or relating to these General Terms of Service, the Service Terms, the Websites, Products and Services, the relationship between you and Paragon or any related matter, and you and Paragon each hereby unconditionally and irrevocably submit and attorn to the original and exclusive jurisdiction of those courts regarding those disputes.

Any delay or failure of that kind will not be a breach of these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms by Paragon, and the time for Paragon's performance of the affected obligation will be extended by a period that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(e) Miscellaneous: You and Paragon are non-exclusive, independent contracting parties, and nothing in these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms or done pursuant to these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms will create or be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, agency, employment or other similar relationship between you and Paragon. Upon request by Paragon, you will execute all further documents and instruments and do all further things as may be reasonably necessary to implement and carry out the provisions and intent of these General Terms of Service and applicable Service Terms. No consent or waiver by Paragon to or of any breach by you of these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms will be effective unless the consent or waiver is confirmed in a document that is signed by Paragon or will be deemed or construed to be a consent to or waiver of a continuing breach or any other breach by you. Paragon's rights and remedies under these General Terms of Service and the Service Terms are cumulative and not exhaustive or exclusive of any other rights or remedies to which Paragon may be lawfully entitled under these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms or at law, and Paragon will be entitled to pursue any and all of its rights and remedies concurrently, consecutively and alternatively. If any provision of these General Terms of Service or any Service Terms is held by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, then the provision will be deemed severed from these General Terms of Service or the Service Terms (as applicable) and the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way, unless as a result of the severance these General Terms of Service or the Service Terms (as applicable) would fail in their essential purpose.
